The problem comes in that not many online casinos cater directly for New Zealand players. This means Kiwi players are often hamstrung by casinos that don't accept New Zealand Dollars (NZD$) and casinos that won't allow NZ players to wager for real money whatsoever. Some players are also blocked by the fact that not all online casinos allow New Zealand players to wager as they wish, meaning they might have to download software when they would rather play via their browser. There are many casino sites online that don't last very long in the business and there are also places like Intertops which have been successfully running for decades. Active since the days of the first online casinos back in 1998, Intertops is one in a rare group of online casinos that have catered to online players for 20 years. US-friendly from its start, this is a casino that knows how to make you feel like in Vegas and not just because of its collection of games. Bitcoin live casino
