If you have more than one casino (online or live) that you enjoy playing keno in, take a look at the payouts the new games offer on similar bets. You might find that one of your casinos offers much better odds than the others. At online casinos, this can even be true within a single casino, as there may very well be several keno games, each of which has different odds and payouts. If you have the choice, it always make sense to play the game that offers you the most for your money. (See our page about high roller keno.) Remember, in land based casinos you could not really test out a casino game to see if you like it, but online casinos offer you the chance to play for free. This way you can get a hang of the game without losing a dime. Now that's a fair deal if you ask me. Each casino we recommend offers both the American and European format to its players, with all the standard rules and correct odds. We advise playing the European version, which is currently the most popular version of the game on the Internet, due to the lower house edge. To the informed gambler, there is no other choice. Other enticing games offered across the network of casinos we recommend include: Same day payout casino
