After a few double ups, Hockin suddenly found himself in a much better position. After Guzzardi was eliminated in third place, Warner and Hockin almost immediately decided the tournament in a huge clash. Warner actually appeared to have the best of it, as he got his money in with AQ against Hockin's AT. However, a ten on the flop (and another one on the turn) allowed Hockin to double through Warner, crippling him. Warner was eliminated just two hands later, when his J5 couldn't catch up to Hockin's Q9. Online casino reviews are very important to Australian gamblers.
