One possibility to improve the state of the self-exclusion program would be to take a universal approach, and that's what many gambling experts are advocating for. Under such a system, the multitude of different self-exclusion programs that exist now would be standardized under one set of rules. Perhaps even more importantly, the self-exclusion list would apply to all venues, including both casinos and clubs that offer pokies or other gambling games. It's possible that such a list could even include online gambling sites that are regulated by federal and state governments. Online mobile casino Australia
