Lottoland held their first Bitcoin Lotto yesterday at 8:30 pm GMT. As it has already been mentioned, the country lifted its prohibition on gambling only in 1993. However, the new laws didn't go without restrictions, as only the limited-stakes casino gambling was permitted. Fully-stakes gambling became legal only in 2000 when all the games were divided into 2 categories – games of skills and games of chance. The latters were to be played only in the local licensed land-based entities. Now there are 21 casinos and 11 tracks for horse racing, spread all over 26 Swiss member states. Although the lotteries are considered illegal, each member state has a right to establish its individual ones.
