Hitting three in a row of these symbols will earn you a jackpot — though exactly how much you'll win depends on how many coins you bet. However, the prize grows significantly if you played for three coins; in that case, you'd win 2,500 credits, or up to $12,500 if playing for the maximum coin size. That's about 833 credits per coin, or more than triple the return you get playing for one or two coins. That makes it well worth your while to play at a denomination where you are comfortable playing for the full three coins! Smaller consolation prizes are also available if you should hit one or two of the jackpot symbols during a spin.
